MIRROIR

Mike,
I hope you don't mind me signing your book, but I couldn't resist. Hope you had a great time in France. Good luck all especially if you take French 3. I'm sure you will be one of the 13 taking it. Don't forget all the fun we had. Europa LA

Mike,
We sure have

Mike –
Hi. It's a nice day outside. Good luck,
Since today's my birthday
I should think Mr. O'Connor would hold a special review class for me.
Marie Oppel

Mike,
There's so much that I could write that I don't know where to begin. School has just been great this year. The memories will always remain with me. M.U.F. has been a regular blast this year. Canada brings back so many memories, especially the party we had that one night in the Winnipeg. I doubt that you'll ever forget Mrs. K. She was a blast, if she could only drive! The trip to Nova Caverns was fun, especially where you were walking thru the winding to the place (I can't remember the way and came boy's name of it) where the boy is supposed to kiss the girl and you kissed Jeannie.

I want to write everything I want to, it really can't be said enough. (Your friendship is invaluable to me. You're lots of fun and a real great bid. You'll always be there, just wonderful time personality. If you keep your great personality. May God Bless you always.

Love ya,
Linda

Ilion, New York

FOREWORD

Since time is very vital this year and years to come, we, the year-book staff of '64, have decided to use time as our theme. To bring this out we are showing the different stages that we have gone through from our Freshman year on up to the final year. To symbolize this we are using Noili Roines as ourselves. You will see him swinging his way throughout the book.

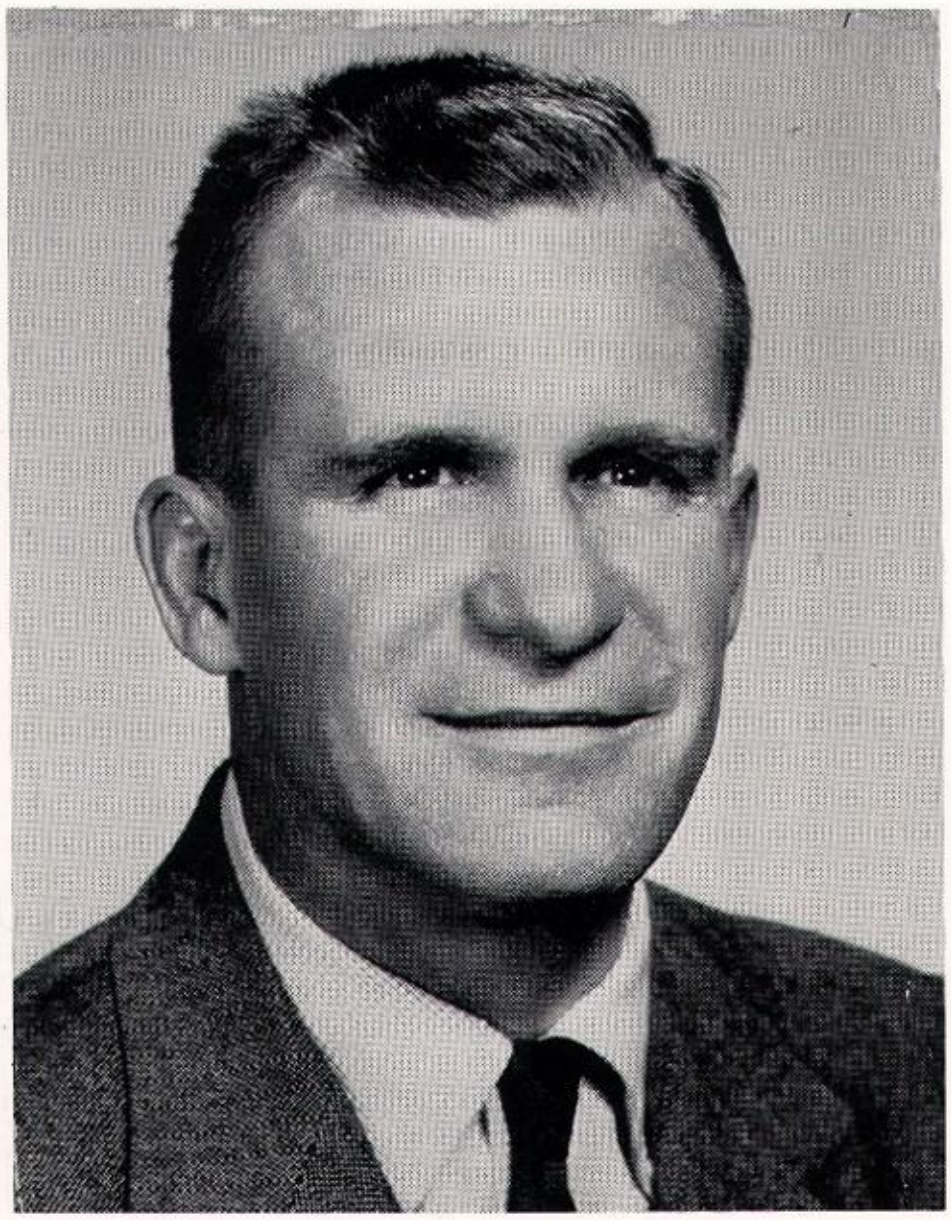
DEDICATION

In grateful appreciation for her sincere interests and efforts on our behalf, the Class of 1964 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Miss Barbara Schwarz. During our year in the classroom with her, she devoted her fullest energies to instill in us the importance of history, to give us an awareness of our proud heritage that we might ever strive for excellence and achievement.

We remember our sophomore year with her for many reasons. We recall Miss Schwarz, her smile, her friendliness, and the stern word of reproof when it was needed. The "general" (or "that man upstairs in 315"), the pet squirrel, the lead mine, and the discourteous knights all spring to mind when we remember her. We think of the dates, encircling the room, spanning the years 4241 B.C. to the present. There were the roll lists of important names, the notebook "extras," and the boards covered with the required notes. All of this, and much more, mingled to make World History in 203 so unique an experience.

Each of us has memories, or recalls special things about special days, but all fondly remember that special person that was an important part of our high school years.

MEMO



Teacher, coach, administrator and family man, each word describes a particular part of the career of Leo Robert Grygiel. Yet, these important segments of this individual's later life do not even begin to reflect the phases of the man himself for which he will continue to be remembered.

The faculty of the Ilion school system remembers a hard working man whose dedication to his profession and consideration of others were an inspiration to all who worked with him. The thankless jobs and the tight sport were the tasks that challenged Leo Grygiel. He managed each task in his stride and still found time to help light another's day with his dry wit. Further, coupled with an ability to drive himself that astonished many people, he seemed to find no goal unattainable.

The student body of Ilion High, who traveled daily to room 207 to receive instruction in the history of the United States, recall a strongly conservative individual with just the right blend of tolerance and discipline. The discussions were often long and heated but no one was ever denied his right to state his opinion. Communism lost all chance of domination over the mind of many an Ilion youth in that classroom.

Whether it was his enthusiasm for teaching that even deep pain could not quench, his solid moral code of right and wrong, his industry or his cooperation, there was no one who could not find something in the character of Leo Grygiel to respect, admire and imitate. A well-rounded man that enjoyed people, books and sports, he contributed something to all that he undertook. Most of all Ilion remembers Mr. Grygiel as a friend; masculine in the company of men, polite and kind with women and gentle with children. "He has lived and worked with the people of Ilion and left us all a little better because of it."

RIAM

The Class of '64 wishes to express its appreciation for the wonderful years given to us by Mrs. Dimock. She was always by our side when we needed a helping hand, and never failed to listen to our problems. She always seemed to come up with the answer when the question seemed unanswerable. We will never forget that it was she who consistently reminded us to "work hard" and "be alert." She had set the high standards that we tried to live up to and put before ourselves as goals. It was a pleasure to have her as our teacher and friend. Even though she demanded a high quality of work, which was hard to achieve, we were jubilant in the end when we discovered how much talent she brought out in us. As a teacher, she was demanding, but behind that cheerful smile and hospitable personality was a heart full of warmth. We are sure that everyone who knew her has a place in his heart for the woman who was a steppingstone on his path to becoming a good scholar and citizen.

APPRE

Miss Ford

Thank you, Miss Ford, for being our class advisor for the last three years. The help and guidance you have given us is inestimable. If it were not for your great patience, we would never have made all those tissue flowers in time for our Sophomore Dance, or put all the tinsel on our tree for the Christmas Ball. Your smile and assurance have led us through many a trying moment, and your constant enthusiasm has spurred us on when ours had begun to drag. We will always remember you, Miss Ford, and we hope that in the future you will think of us and all the fun and work we have shared.

Thank you, too, Mr. Fahey, for being our class "dad." Without your constant guidance we would have been lost. You watched over us at all our unruly meetings, and our even more unruly open houses. We were certainly lucky to have an advisor who would stay up late Friday nights decorating for our ball and prom, and a coach who led us on to victory in class games. Your advice and direction have led us successfully through three years of activities and because of this our class will always remember you as someone extra special.

Mr. Fahey

IATION

Miss Ferris

To you, Miss Ferris,

For your invaluable help and understanding. Your way of guiding the art in the '64 Mirror has made all of us feel excited at each recreation of the little man who decorates our yearbook. For your warmth, friendliness (reprimands when we needed them) and dexterity, for these things, we dedicate the '64 Mirror to you in appreciation.

Mr. Grieco

To you, Mr. Grieco,

For your ever constant faith in us. Your hard work with our business activities was but a small part of the assistance you gave us. We thank you, Mr. Grieco, for the interest you showed in our entire staff and your casual way of dissolving our problems. For being a part of everything we did, we dedicate this yearbook to you.

SEN

IÒRS

Frisky Frosh

One hundred and fifty four "students" barged and scrambled their way into the sacred halls of ivy in the great year of 1960. Entrance, us. No doubt influenced by the Presidential Election, we felt a need for student leadership; and Paul Morris, Cheryl Miller, Dan McGrath, Bob Clive, Don Keddell, Ed Haggerty, and Tony Maneen were chosen to make life easier in homeroom.

Finally getting settled we felt we were true experts as a "community" group; well, almost. It was the first time that the new students realized that papers were meant to be folded and all messed up.

The lucky Sophomores managed somehow to beat us in our first encounter with class games, even though we had Doug Bernard, Don Keddell, Ed Haggerty, Paul Pickett, Paul Morris, Al Slocum, Tim McCormack, Mark White, Tom Heintz, "Peewee"

Lozo, "Cappy" Phelps, Dennis Weiss, John Burkhart, Tom Morris, and Bill Wardle to bring us the victory. Our spirit was backed by the cheerleaders; Leslie Fay, Cheryl Miller, Jean Dulak, Nancy Frosch, Linda Hart, Sandy Shaw, Janet Frezza, Mimi Mills, and Leslie De Reus. Rumor said we didn't want any feelings hurt, so we let them win. With disappointment soon forgotten, we marched over to Paul Morris' for an open house. When the lights were on for awhile all seemed to be having a superb time. (Sorry, Mrs. Derby) Later the girls dragged themselves off to Cheryl Miller's house for a pajama party. Never forget that one, will we, Pat!

Many found out too late, when finals hit Ilion, exactly what the teachers had tried to tell us all year. Oh, well, there's always next year to make resolutions about studying more.

Swinging Sophs

Becoming Sophomores in the following year we took another step closer to our last plateau together. Since we now knew exactly how much we needed leadership, we found ourselves with Paul Morris, President, Dave Wells, Vice-President, Leslie DeReus, Secretary, Steve Getman, Treasurer, and Don Keddell was selected as the Secretary of Student Council.

This was the year we handled the coat check at basketball games, which came as a great aid to our shaky treasury. Cheryl Miller, chairman of this great undertaking, did a superb job and set a record—she lost only 2 pairs of overshoes and a coat or two; but gained 15 scarves and 3 mittens. Fewer words were never spoken by our class (wardens) advisors, Miss Ford and Mr. Fahey.

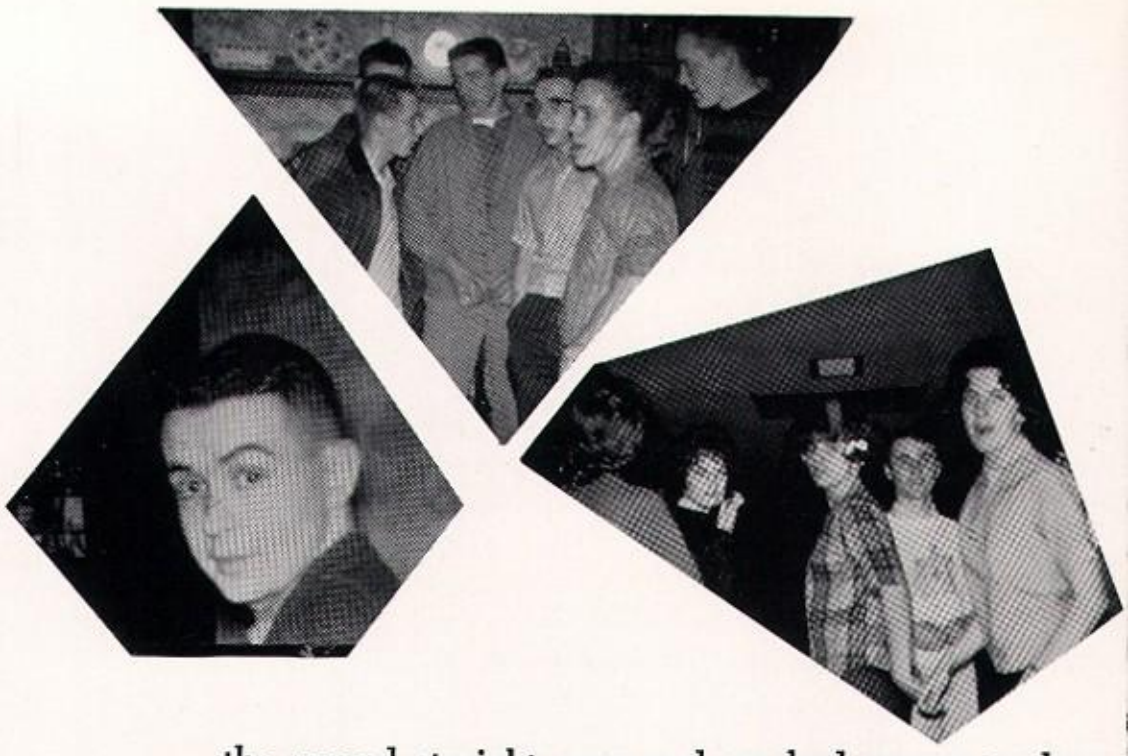
With the money we had acquired we decided to have a skating party in February. Afterwards, with aching backs and posteriors we hobbled over to Jack Valent's for an Open House.

In order to build up our funds again we planned our first dance. "Swing into Spring" was the first semi-formal to hit Ilion that year and we all had fun swinging on the decorations.

Finally it came our chance to win at class games. Doug Bernard, as a member of the Class A Section III Championship team, proved vital to our success along with Don Keddell, Ed Haggerty, Den Weiss, Al Slocum, Joe Callahan, Tom Heintz, Mark White, Tom Morris, Paul Pickett, Tim McCormack, John Burkhart, Bill Wardle, Tony Maneen, and Dan McGrath. For our peppy cheerleaders we chose Leslie Fay, Cheryl Miller, Linda Hart, Sandy Shaw, Janet Frezza, Bev Dzimitrowcz, Jean Dulak, Mimi Mills, and Leslie DeReus. To celebrate our success we skipped over to Lance Nehr's for a house wrecking party!

Jumpin' Juniors

At long last we were Juniors! The only thing that really brought it home to us was the fact that many of us had 208 as a homeroom. Election time proved profitable, as we slated Paul Morris as President again, while Charlie Bennett assisted as Vice-President. Carol Klippel became our Secretary, and Steve Getman was again the holder of the purse. Don Keddell moved up the ladder as Student Council Vice-President.



As far as subjects were concerned, whew! We had plenty of work to keep us busy. We soon learned we couldn't go to classes with blood shot eyes. But we did make up for all the hard work when we got to chemistry lab. One of our colleagues decided to test the bunsen burner with his sleeve; ouch! Another rinsed out his pneumatic trough with concentrated hydrochloric acid. (the class cleared out in record time) Did you know that a bunsen burner attached to a water faucet makes a great squirt gun?

It was the greatest year ever for the Bombers with an undefeated basketball season. They brought home the Section III Class A Championship title for the second straight year and we had reason to be proud of them. We can't forget our players who aided the victory; Doug Bernard, Al Slocum, Mark White, and Don Keddell, nor can we miss the cheerleaders; Janet Frezza, Leslie De Reus, Susan Burns, Linda-Jo Caple, Cheryl Miller, Joan Snedeker, and Joyce Watson.

Before we knew it class games had rolled around, and it was our turn to dress properly for the occasion. We held our own stock car races urged on by our checker flag cheerleaders; Janet Frezza, Nancy Frosch, Mary June Gardner, Jean Dulak, Pat Alexander, Dizzy, Mary Ladd, Linda-Jo Caple, and Sandy Shaw. Having such a great team we caused the seniors trouble, but fell as the losers. Penny Remmel had a rough time with us at the open house.

Next on the agenda was the Jr. Prom. Steve Getman, chairman, had fun with the pagoda, but we did finish on schedule. "Kahiki" proved definitely to be a night to remember.

With the arrival of our class rings we finally came to the realization that we had only one more year until graduation in '64. There was no way to change the inscription on the rings.

Sharp Seniors

The end of our stay in Ilion is coming up soon. As this goes to press we find we have left many wonderful times behind, such as our great football concession stand. Home games were never so much fun, even though we did experience a game where everyone drank foam.

Once we all got settled in the cafeteria we held elections of officers for our class and Student Council. Charlie Bennett, Tom Morris, Linda Caple, Al Slocum, were President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer respectively. Don Keddell held the monopoly on the votes for President of Student Council. Other honors and jobs were offered to the Seniors. Leslie De Reus was selected for the DAR Good Citizenship Award and Elaine Mutchler, Pam Dauten, and Janet Goldin were chosen to lead us through the annual card sale. Later in the year Lois Hofstra and Sue Gogol took care of getting our announcements ready for us in June.

With the close of football season came the time for electing some Queens for Homecoming and the Senior Ball. Sandy Shaw and Leslie De Reus presided respectively over the festivities. This year's theme was Christmas Fantasy.

As for basketball, this year we found ourselves tied with Mohawk for first place. The whole team did an excellent job and two of our classmates, Doug Bernard and Mark White, were chosen for the Iroquois League All-Star Team. Other Seniors that made up the squad were Al Slocum, Dan McGrath, Terry Sweeney, Bill Day, Don Keddell, and Marty Wilson as the manager. Right now we are looking forward with great hopes to another Section III Championship in this sport and in the winter sports, volleyball, ping pong, and badminton.

There is much more of our Senior Year to complete and many more of us have to hear from our prospective colleges. Steve Getman seems to be our candidate for Yale and has an excellent chance because of his 275 on the Regent's Exam.

Along with the memories that we are leaving behind we are making room for the memories that we have yet to create, such as Class Games, Spaghetti Dinner, and Paint Night (which started a bit early this year—like October, yeh Bill!)

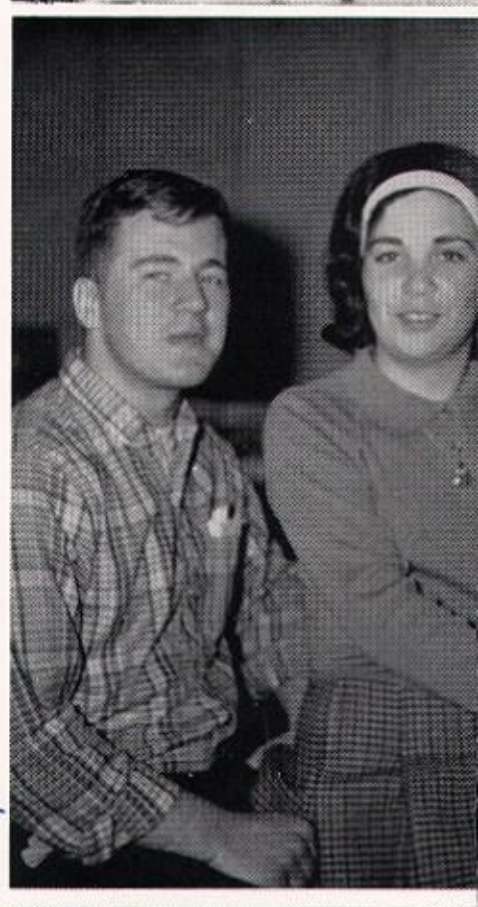
The first time many of us saw Our Jenny was Labor Day at Cheryl Miller's. She was not in her best form for she had just been tossed into the pool. All we could really tell about her at the time was that the Hokes hadn't lied to us about her freckles. And like any new person at our school Jenny received a lot of attention from both sexes. Once things got settled down everyone fell for the pretty little girl with the "funny" accent.

As soon as she became used to us (which is difficult for anyone to do) she became a true Ilionite and addicted to the 6:00 A.M. alarm clock. The change was difficult, but she adjusted better than most of us.

Besides being one of the friendliest people to be found anywhere we soon discovered Jenny was athletically inclined. She did an excellent job of picking up volleyball and basketball. She even got a team named after her first home, the "Zealanders."

Jenny will always be an integral part of our Senior memories, not only because she has enabled more students to locate New Zealand on the map and to honor her 5 battleship navy (oops—can't forget the 2 rowboats—can we, Jenny), but also because she brought us a ray of happiness, a beam of sunlight, and a warm heart that made school a great place to go. Her image will always remain with us in the warmest part of our hearts.



Goldy Mike,
This has been a really great year,
I will never forget the good times,
we have had together - Good luck
for the future (Is it true blonds have more fun?) Jenny.

The Will

I, Carol Adams, leave Karen Custer with the memories of all our wild "pj" parties.

I, Pat Alexander, leave my flirty ways to Betty Seamen.

I, Carol Allen, leave Janice Abeling Bus #3.

I, Ken Allen, leave Mr. Drake, Spanish.

I, Barb Armstrong, leave.

I, Jim Bacon, leave.

I, John Bacon, leave anything, everything, or nothing to anyone who wants anything, everything, or nothing.

I, Loie Barnes, leave my sanity in the center-fold.

I, Charlie Bennett, leave Charlie Day my right leg so he can play football.

I, Jen Bennett, leave Melody Cagwin to find another ride.

I, Mary Carol Bentley, leave Kay Humphrey all the fun I have had at IHS these years.

I, Doug Bernard, leave my dunk shot to anyone who can get high enough to do it.

I, Peg Bonn, leave my heavy schedule to anyone who is stupid enough to want it.

I, Carol Bouck, leave for the Wards.

I, Mary Bowers, leave to question everything at Oneonta.

I, John Burkhart, leave getting up at 6 A.M. to go to school.

I, Sue Burns, leave my seat in the art room to Jane Lacy.

I, Glenn Bush, leave.

TRADI

As we prepare to leave Ilion High School and our fleeting Senior year has all but slipped from our grasps, it is time to look back and remember a few of those things that add a special touch to our memories of the Ilion High School beyond the classrooms. It is a time for remembering traditions—the traditions that become so integral a part of every graduating Senior class.

HOMECOMING

The big weekend in the fall is Homecoming. Student Council, the cheerleaders, and the entire student body spend weeks of preparation, all for that last home football game. And then it all races past—the boy cheerleaders, the noon pep rally of Friday with the crowning of the Queen, the bonfire Friday night and the short sock hop afterwards, the parade to the game and the big Homecoming Dance on Saturday night. It is a time of excitement for everyone; but perhaps more important, it is a chance for alumni to relive a weekend in the spirit of youth.

HERKIMER-ILION GAME

By far the most important football game every year is the game with Herkimer. Since its beginnings in 1920, the game has grown to its present stature as an annual classic. Records might as well be thrown to the wind when these two teams meet for the last contest of the gridiron season. Expeditions to capture and recapture mascots and dummies, pep rallies, and the certain secret magic behind this game all fire both teams to a peak. Anything can and does happen, and a victory against Herkimer often makes an otherwise gloomy season a success.

CLASS GAMES

After the basketball season and sectional competition are over, class unity again appears on the school scene. Preparation starts for class games. The Juniors and Seniors work feverishly on themes and costumes. The underdog Freshman and Junior teams always enter the games hoping for an upset over the Sophs and Seniors. Open houses follow the games, and, win or lose, they are always lively.

TIONS

FACULTY GAMES

Once a year all the students at Ilion High School get a chance to release their pent-up emotions at their teachers. A packed gymnasium always witnesses the teachers' demonstrations of their athletic prowess in the faculty. With the basketball game, a squad of cheerleaders, and a volleyball game, everyone gets a chance to laugh at the antics or the costumes of at least one of their teachers—and it is all for a good cause, the Earl P. Watkins Memorial Fund.

PAINT NIGHT

One night in June the Seniors turn their talents toward painting the town (that is, the streets and sidewalks of the town). The morning after paint night, initials can be seen almost anywhere in red, orange, purple, and white, not to mention gold and brown—a lasting token of the Seniors' stay at Ilion High School.

DRESS-DOWN DAY

Dress-down Day is a day of revelry for all of Ilion High School. Only the Seniors can come in costumes, but sometimes it is just as much fun to watch. Seniors in everything from diapers to Indian feathers mingle with the envious underclassmen. This is the one time of the year when the administration of Ilion High School may be overrun by beatniks.

SENIOR DAY

The final assembly of each school year is the Senior Awards Assembly. Here athletic trophies are awarded, gifts are presented to the advisors and to the school. It is a time for the Senior Class to look back at their high school careers with perhaps a little nostalgia and to look forward to the future: a time for closing one life, but for beginning another.

Hi Mike!
Here's hoping we see each other next yr. History Class was a blast. But Miss Capalbo wants us to go over to Nisi. Bad luck on Regents.

Mike
It's really been
you. It's interesting that's scary. I think you're a real swell kid and a blast to know. I hope you pass all your finals (I'll probably be in some of your classes next year)
The very best of luck
to you in the future.
God Bless you always
Love,
Melody

Mike, You're a real great Pal & a good Bassoon player. Good Luck in your Future Years. Your friend, Maureen

Mike,
Remember the fun we had in school and all the talks we've had. Good luck with your tennis. If you keep practicing you'll really be good. Good luck in the future and keep smiling. You'll go a long way. Also good luck on your exams.
Love
Karen.

Mike,
Well the year almost over. English class sure has been a blast with you guys. Hope you pass all your test. I'm sure you'll be able to smile all the way through them. I didn't know very well but I guess I found out fast enough. You a real blast - keep it up. Have fun this summer and stay out of trouble
Good Luck

Mike,

We had a lot of fun in english class and I hope you didn't take it too hard because it was all in fun. Hope to have you in my class next year.

Keith.

Mike, I bet you & I got to know each other quite well this year. I had a lot of fun in your class & I am sorry I was a nuisance at times. I know we can have more fun next year in Mrs. Bean's class.

Mike,
Don't ever forget the fun we've had through school.
It was loads of fun.
Lots of Luck in the future.
Nancy

Mike,
You've been a real sweet kid, so stay that way. I sorta hope we don't get to wash beards, because I'd be a soon go clean shaven,
Best of luck & may God
help you in all endeavors,
Be sure to have a swell time
Dave
